

SGRM – Swiss Society of Reproductive Medicine

SGRM Commissions - Missions

According to the by laws

FIVNAT	FertiForum	FertiSave	SWICE	Kontrazeption	QUARTS
To collect data ART techniques to establish annual statistics of affiliated Swiss IVF centers	Provide a framework for the exchange of ideas and mutual support of female infertility counselors at local, national and international levels	To develop data registry systems	To promote continuous education and training for embryologists/technicians	To promote education and training. To cooperate with other national and international societies. To promote science.
To develop and promote the quality of the data registry	Promote recognition, need and relevance of counseling in the context of infertility and ART	To collect data of fertility preserving procedures	To establish guidelines for laboratories involved in human ART	To support our knowledge about the mechanism of contraception, its indications, contraindications, risks and side effects.
To transfer Swiss statistical data after validation to the Swiss Federal Bureau of statistics.	Participate in setting up criteria common to the training of counselors in the field of infertility	To support multidisciplinary treatment strategies	To organize external quality controls (EQC)	To communicate with the press if required

SGRM Commissions - Missions

FIVNAT	FertiForum	FertiSave	SWICE	Kontrazeption	QUARTS
To organize and overview the audits defined by FIVNAT – on a voluntary basis. To support cantonal doctors in inspecting Swiss IVF centers, as required by the Swiss Law	Participate, as much as possible, in the development of decisions of public health authorities and stakeholders, if these decisions affect areas of interest to the profession	To be politically active regarding reimbursement of fertility preserving procedures	To exchange information between embryologists and clinicians
To cooperate with other national registers in the world		To develop recommendations for fertility preservation procedures	To act as laboratory experts of human ART for patients and for third parties, such as the general public, the media, the politicians, etc. ...
To communicate with the press if required	To communicate with the press if required	To communicate with the press if required	To communicate with the press if required	To communicate with the press if required	To communicate with the press if required
Regulation Version: 27.11.2014	Regulation Version: 10.10.2014	Regulation Version: 26.10.2017	Regulation Version: 30.03.2017	Regulation Version: XXXXXXX	Regulation Version: XXXXXXX